Trust vs. Faith Healthy Life Chain

Trust draws on proof and patterns; act when evidence supports. Faith holds a vision during uncertainty; take small, smart steps while you build data.

Healthy Life Chain: Responsibility → Control → Freedom → Joy → Health → Stability

Core Agreements

- Be Impeccable With Your Word
- Don't Take Anything Personally
- Don't Make Assumptions
- Always Do Your Best

Woven Map — Quick Cues

Plain-language prompts you can say out loud

FIELD → MAP → VOICE A / B / C

Fast lane check

- “We’re in A — I act now. Small promise, kept.”
- “We’re in B — I make a clean request. Then I release.”
- “We’re in C — I name the limit once. Then I release.”

Stress types → moves

- Type I (working on what I can’t control) → Clarify / Filter & Release
- Type II (avoiding what I can control) → Commit Fully

Core Agreements — micro-prompts

- Word: “I’ll do X by Y.” If I miss, I repair fast.
- Not Personal: “That reaction belongs to their map.”
- No Assumptions: “I’ll ask or test instead of guessing.”
- Do My Best: “Given today’s energy, here’s the humane minimum.”

Tiny VOICE scripts

- “Support first or plan first?”
- “Now or in 15 minutes?”
- “One request: [state it]. What do you need from me?”
- “Loop closed. Did that help enough for now?”

Tip: keep cues visible near your workstation or as a phone widget. Ritual beats willpower.
